Official Statement of The Peninsula Manila - Update

November 29, 2007, 19.00 Hong Kong time

The occupation of The Peninsula Manila by a group of anti-government rebels has ended, and the rebels have left the hotel. The matter is now being dealt with by the relevant Philippine authorities.

Hotel guests are currently being accommodated at neighbouring hotels. The Peninsula Manila takes the safety of its guests, patrons and staff extremely seriously, considering it to be of paramount importance, and the hotel will continue to liaise and work closely with the Philippine authorities.

The Peninsula Manila is now closed until further notice.

For general enquiries, please contact The Peninsula Manila hotline on + 632 759 3011 or + 632 759 3010.
